PREFACE

Experience has shown that owing to the many New Creations, Births, Marriages and Deaths which occur during the space of one year there is a growing need for more frequent revision of a Peerage than is afforded by the Ordinary Annual Edition.

In response, therefore, to a very generally expressed desire for such a publication, Dod's Peerage, Ltd., now present the First Edition of the Supplement to the Peerage, including Baronetage and Knightage, etc., which is incidentally a supplement to every Peerage; and it is intended to issue a further edition in August, and, if sufficient support is given, to produce these annually.

The Supplement has been brought up to date, and includes the following information :—

1. In cases where the Head of the Family has died since the Annual Edition of the Peerage, Baronetage and Knightage was published (Dec., 1914) the article on that family has been revised and is reprinted in full.

2. All available information in regard to the recipients of New Honours, Peers, Baronets and Knights is given.

3. The lists of the Companionage, etc., have been brought up to date.

4. There is a complete list of those officers whose names appeared in the Peerage, Baronetage, Knightage and Companionage and who have lost their lives in the war, with the names of their Regiment, together with family reference or order and date of death.

FORMAL MODES OF ADDRESSING LETTERS TO PERSONS OF TITLE

BEFORE the reader can ascertain the correct mode of addressing any person of title, it is first necessary that he should learn the precise rank of the individual, as well as the hereditary personal or official distinctions by which that rank is often modified. Information of this kind he will find under each person's name in Parts I. and II. of this volume; and then, by referring to the following series of statements (in which the ranks, &c., are alphabetically arranged), he can apply the general rule to the individual instance, and find the correct mode of addressing letters to every member of the titled classes.

ARCHBISHOP.—Letters are addressed "His Grace the Lord Archbishop of——," and commence with the words "My Lord Archbishop"; but more formal documents describe the Archbishop of Canterbury as "The Most Reverend Father in God, Randall Thomas Davidson, by Divine Providence Lord Archbishop of Canterbury." Other archbishops, like bishops, are styled "by Divine permission." In letters and conversation an archbishop is not addressed as "Your Lordship," but as "Your Grace." The Archbishop of Armagh is usually addressed in Ireland as "His Grace the Lord Primate of Ireland." One Irish bishop, viz., Meath, which was anciently an archiepiscopal see, continues to enjoy one of the honorary distinctions of an archbishop, and to be styled "Most Reverend."

ARCHBISHOPS' WIVES enjoy no title or precedence whatever in right of their husbands' official rank, and are addressed as "Mrs." simply.

BARON.—Letters are addressed "The Right Honourable Lord——," and commence with the words "My Lord." When personally referred to, he is styled "Your Lordship."

BARON'S DAUGHTER.—Letters are addressed "The Honourable Mary——," or if married, "The Honourable Mrs.——," and commence with the word "Madam."

BARON'S SON.—Letters are addressed "The Honourable James——," or "The Honourable William——," as the case may be, and commence with the word "Sir."

BARON'S SON'S WIFE.—Letters are addressed "The Honourable Mrs.——," and commence with the word "Madam."

BARON'S WIFE and BARONESS in her own right.—Letters are, according to strict formality, addressed as "The Right Honourable Lady——"; but in the majority of instances the form adopted is "The Lady——." The commencement of the letter is "Madam," but when personally referred to, she is styled "Your Ladyship."

BARONETS.—Letters are addressed "Sir John ——, Baronet," or "Sir William——, Baronet," as the case may be, and commence with the word "Sir."

BARONETS' WIVES.—Letters are addressed "Lady——," without any Christian name (unless she be the daughter of an earl, marquess, or duke), and commence with the word "Madam"; but when personally referred to, a baronet's wife is styled "Your Ladyship."

BISHOPS.—Letters are usually addressed "The Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of——," and commence with the words "My Lord"; but frequently the prefix of "Right Reverend" is omitted. In more formal documents the style is "The Right Reverend Father in God, William (or George, &c., as the case may be), by Divine permission Lord Bishop of ——". Bishops suffragan are by custom entitled to the same style as if they were territorial Bishops. The bishops of the Episcopal Church in Scotland are correctly addressed by their own names, thus, "The Right Rev. Bishop Dowden"; and the commencement is not "My Lord," but "Right Reverend Sir." Colonial bishops are addressed like those of England. Colonial Metropolitans are addressed like archbishops as Most Rev.

BISHOP'S WIVES.—Like Archbishops' Wives, which see.

COUNTESS.—Letters are addressed "The Right Honourable the Countess of——," or less formally "The Countess of——," and commence with the word "Madam"; but when personally referred to, she is styled "Your Ladyship."

DUCHESS.—Letters are addressed "Her Grace the Duchess of——," and commence with the word "Madam"; but when personally referred to, she is styled "Your Grace."

DUKE.—Letters are addressed "His Grace the Duke of——," and commence with the words "My Lord Duke"; when personally referred to, he is styled "Your Grace."

DUKE'S DAUGHTER.—Letters are addressed "The Lady Mary——," or "The Lady Margaret ——" (as the case may be). They commence with the word "Madam," and when personally referred to, she is styled "Your Ladyship." If a duke's daughter marries a commoner, it only changes her surname.

DUKE'S ELDEST SON.—He uses the second title of his father by courtesy, and his letters are addressed precisely as if he enjoyed a marquisate or earldom, as the case may be (although in law he is, like all peers' sons, only an esquire). Vide Marquess, Earl, &c.

DUKE'S YOUNGER SON.—Letters are addressed usually as "The Lord William——," or "The Lord John——." They commence with the words "My Lord," and when personally referred to, he is styled "Your Lordship."

DUKE'S YOUNGER SON'S WIFE.—Letters are addressed (unless when the wife is of superior rank to the husband) "The Lady William——," and "The Lady John——." They commence with the word "Madam," and when personally referred to, she is styled "Your Ladyship."

EARL.—Letters are addressed "The Right Honourable the Earl of——," or less formally "The Earl of——." They commence with "My Lord," and when personally referred to, he is styled "Your Lordship."

EARL'S DAUGHTER.—Like Duke's Daughter, which see.

EARL'S ELDEST SON.—Letters are addressed as if he enjoyed by right the title which he bears by courtesy.

EARL'S YOUNGER SON.—Though an Earl's daughters have the same prefix as those of a Duke, yet the sons of an Earl are only "Honourables." Letters are addressed like those to barons' sons, which see.

EARL'S YOUNGER SON'S WIFE.—Like baron's son's wife, unless when of superior rank to her husband.

EARL'S WIFE.—Vide Countess.

JUDGES.—Letters to the Lords Justices of Appeal, who are invariably made Privy Counsellors, are addressed "The Right Hon. Lord Justice——," or "The Right Hon. Sir A. B.," and letters to the Justices of the High Court are addressed "The Hon. Sir A. B.," or "The Hon. Mr. Justice——." Official letters commence "My Lord," but in ordinary correspondence "Sir" is commonly used. If a Lord Justice is a peer, or if a Judge is a peer or privy counsellor, he should be addressed accordingly. (For Scottish Judges, see LORD OF SESSION.)

KING.—Letters are addressed to "The King's Most Excellent Majesty," and commence with the word "Sire"; when personally referred to, he is styled "Your Majesty." Another form of address frequently adopted, is a mixture of the first and third persons thus, "Mr. Balfour presents his duty to your Majesty."

KNIGHT BACHELOR.—Letters are addressed "Sir John——," or "Sir William——" (as the case may be), without the addition of "Knight." They commence with the word "Sir." More formal documents require the affix of "Knight."

KNIGHT OF THE GARTER.—K.G. is placed after the name, in addition to any other distinction which the individual may enjoy.

KNIGHT OF ST. PATRICK.—K.P. is used like K.G. for Knight of the Garter.

KNIGHT OF THE THISTLE.—K.T. is used like K.G. for Knight of the Garter.

KNIGHT OF THE BATH.—Like Knight Bachelor, but with the addition of the letters G.C.B. or K.C.B. after the surname, according to the individual case.

KNIGHT OF THE STAR OF INDIA.—Like Knight Bachelor, but with the addition of the letters G.C.S.I. or K.C.S.I. after the surname, according to the individual case.

KNIGHT OF ST. MICHAEL AND ST. GEORGE.—Like Knight Bachelor, but with the addition of G.C.M.G. or K.C.M.G. after the surname, according to the individual case.

KNIGHT OF THE INDIAN EMPIRE.—Like Knight Bachelor, but with the addition of G.C.I.E. or K.C.I.E. after the surname, according to the individual case.

KNIGHT OF THE ROYAL VICTORIAN ORDER.—Like Knight Bachelor, but with the addition of G.C.V.O. or K.C.V.O. after the surname, according to the individual case.

KNIGHT'S WIFE.—Letters to the wife of a Knight of the Bath, Star of India, St. Michael and St. George, Indian Empire, and of the Victorian Order, as well as to the wife of a Knight Bachelor, are addressed "Lady——," and commence with the word "Madam"; but when personally referred to, she is styled "Your Ladyship."

LORD ADVOCATE.—Letters are addressed with the prefix of "Right Honourable," and commence with the word "Sir," not "My Lord."

LORD LIEUTENANT OF IRELAND.—Letters are addressed "His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant," and commence according to the hereditary rank of the individual, "My Lord Marquess," "My Lord," &c. Vide each rank. If however he happens to be a duke, he is not addressed as "His Excellency," but as "His Grace the Lord Lieutenant."

LORD MAYOR.—Letters are addressed "The Right Honourable the Lord Mayor," and commence with the words "My Lord." In England there are lord mayors of London, York, Manchester, Liverpool, Birmingham, Leeds, Bradford, Sheffield, Newcastle, Bristol, and Norwich; in Wales, of Cardiff; and in Ireland of Dublin, Belfast and Cork. In 1902 the title was conferred on the Mayors of Sydney and Melbourne.

LORD OF SESSION.—Letters are addressed "The Honourable Lord Kyllachy," &c. (as the case may be), and commence with the words "My Lord." The two heads of the Court of Session are addressed by their ordinary name and titles (with the prefix of Honourable failing any other title), followed by "Lord Justice General," or "Lord Justice Clerk," as the case may be.

MAIDS OF HONOUR.—Letters are addressed "The Honourable Miss——," and commence with the word "Madam."

MARCHIONESS.—Letters are addressed "The Most Honourable the Marchioness of ——," and commence with the word "Madam"; when personally referred to, she is styled "Your Ladyship."

MARQUESS.—Letters are addressed "The Most Honourable the Marquess of——," not "The Most Noble." They commence "My Lord Marquess"; when personally addressed, he is styled "My Lord" simply; and when incidentally referred to, "Your Lordship."

MARQUESS' DAUGHTER.—Like Duke's daughter, which see.

MARQUESS' ELDEST SON.—Letters are addressed as if he enjoyed by right the title which he bears by courtesy.

MARQUESS' YOUNGER SON.—Like a Duke's younger son, which see.

MARQUESS' YOUNGER SON'S WIFE.—Like a Duke's younger son's wife, which see.

MAYORS.—Letters are addressed "The Right Worshipful the Mayor of——," and commence with the word "Sir." This form is, however, seldom adopted, except in formal petitions, or official letters referring solely to corporate business. Letters are more usually addressed "The Mayor of——" simply. Vide Lord Mayor.

Members of Parliament.—The letters M.P. are added after the surname, in addition to any other distinction which the individual may enjoy.

Military Officer.—The military rank is always prefixed to any other title which the individual may possess, thus, "Major-General Sir Henry——, K.C.B." "Colonel the Earl of Longford," &c.

Naval Officer.—The same rule prevails here as with military officers, which see.

Prince.—Letters are addressed "His Royal Highness Prince——," or "His Royal Highness the Duke of——," when a prince is also a duke. They commence with the word "Sir," and not "My Lord Duke"; when personally referred to, he is styled "Your Royal Highness."

Princess.—Letters are addressed "Her Royal Highness the Princess——," or "Her Royal Highness the Duchess of——" (as the case may be). They commence with the word "Madam," and when personally referred to, she is styled "Your Royal Highness."

Prince's Wife.—Like a princess by birth, which see.

Privy Counsellor.—Letters are addressed with the prefix of "Right Honourable," whatever may be the rank which the individual otherwise enjoys, as "The Right Hon. Sir John—— Bt.," "The Right Hon. John——, M.P.," but in no other respect does the office confer any title.

Privy Counsellors' Wives.—These enjoy no title or precedence whatever in right of their husband's seat at the council board.

Queen.—Letters to Her present Majesty are addressed "Her Most Excellent Majesty Queen Mary," and commence with the word "Madam"; when personally referred to, she is styled "Your Majesty."

Viscount.—Letters are addressed "The Right Honourable Lord Viscount——," or less formally "The Viscount——." They commence with the words "My Lord," and when personally referred to, he is styled "Your Lordship."

Viscountess.—Letters are addressed "The Right Honourable the Viscountess——," or less formally "The Viscountess——." They commence with the word "Madam," and when personally referred to, she is styled "Your Ladyship."

Viscount's Daughter.—Like Baron's daughter, which see.

Viscount's Son.—Like Baron's son, which see.

Viscount's Son's Wife.—Like Baron's son's wife, which see.

THE BOOK OF KNIGHTS.

Some of the Peerage Books before the public include short biographies of Knights, but none of them give to Knights the same treatment, as to the publication of their arms and issue, which Peers and Baronets receive, though the interest and value of the information is the same in all cases.

For this reason, and as a means of putting on permanent record facts of considerable interest and importance, Dod's Peerage Limited are now issuing which contains, in addition to full biographies, all available particulars of their issue and arms.

Imperial 8vo. Price 21/-. With many fine reproductions of Armorial Bearings.
